

Support Local Youth and Promote Your Business!

Proyecto Pastoral was founded in 1986 by Boyle Heights residents and parishioners of Dolores Mission Church. IMPACTO is Proyecto Pastoral's youth development program - founded over 20 years ago by mothers in the community in an effort to keep their children away from gang activity. Today, IMPACTO operates across five sites in Boyle Heights serving approximately 800 youth annually K-12th grade. IMPACTO offers after-school programs, in-school academic case management, sports & recreation, as well as summer camp. Our goal is to develop Boyle Heights youth into leaders that are inspired to give back to their community.

“This is not work, it is my passion. I grew up in the community and these types of program did not exist when I was growing up. Being able to support students on a regular basis through providing positive outlets, social emotional support, engaging activities and resources is so important.”-

Velvet, IMPACTO Program Manager
